Re: Objection to Transfer of Claim No. 6098

In re: FTX Trading Ltd., et al.

Case No. 22-11068 (JTD) (Jointly Administered)

Dear Clerk of the Court,

I, Mashood Alam, the original claimant of Claim No. 6098, respectfully submit this written objection to the proposed transfer of my claim to Morgan & Morgan, P.A. as outlined in the Notice of Transfer of Claim Other Than for Security filed in the above-referenced bankruptcy case.

I object to this transfer for the following reasons:

1. Lack of Authorization: I have not entered into any agreement to transfer, sell, or assign my claim to Morgan & Morgan, P.A.
2. Potential Fraud or Mistake: The purported transfer may have been filed erroneously or without my knowledge or consent.
3. Protection of My Interests: If this transfer is permitted, it may improperly deprive me of my rightful claim and any distributions that may be awarded under the bankruptcy proceedings.

Pursuant to Local Form 138A, I formally request that the Court reject the transfer of my claim unless Morgan & Morgan, P.A. can provide clear and convincing evidence that a valid and enforceable agreement exists between us. I further request that the Court require proof of my explicit consent before any transfer is finalized.

I kindly ask the Court to provide confirmation of the receipt of this objection and notify me of any required hearings or further actions necessary to protect my rights.

Thank you for your time and consideration. Please do not hesitate to contact me at +1(626)686-8622 or mashoodalam2@hotmail.com should further information be required.

Sincerely,

Mashood Alam

Side Note To The Clerk
United States Bankruptcy Court
District of Delaware

Your Honor,

I recently received a document from a law firm with which I had previously filled out an online application. However, at no point did I enter into any formal agreement or sign a contract with them. I have never spoken with anyone from this firm, and despite their continued emails, they have never responded to my inquiries—either by email or phone.

Now, I have unexpectedly received a court document indicating that this firm is attempting to take over my claim. They are requesting that I sign a transfer of claim, effectively giving them full rights over my case. I want to make it absolutely clear that I do not wish to sign this document, nor do I want to transfer any rights over my claim to any party other than myself.

Furthermore, I am concerned about the legitimacy of this firm's actions. Given that I never engaged their services, I do not trust their intentions. It has come to my attention that if I do not formally object within 21 days, the court may automatically substitute them as the claimant. I strongly oppose this and formally object to the document in question.

I kindly request that the court acknowledge my objection and prevent any unauthorized transfer of my claim.

Sincerely,

Mashood Alam
